

The Red Sea's Premier Leisure Destination

Nestled on a secluded stretch of Red Sea coastline, El Gouna is one of the Red Sea's most sought after destinations. Internationally recognized as Egypt's most environmentally friendly destination, El Gouna gets its name from the crystalline lagoons that wrap around a cluster of islands and seashore on which the town is built. El Gouna is a complete holiday destination offering all the services required for a hassle-free vacation or permanent living. In addition to offering 14 hotels, the various activities and entertainment options, world-class cuisines and exciting nightlife make El Gouna the Red Sea's premier leisure destination. Within close proximity to Hurghada International Airport, El Gouna is easily accessible from Europe's major cities.

The Town: In a Class of its Own

Created in partnership with world-renowned architects, hoteliers, businesses and service providers, El Gouna has evolved as a breathtaking holiday paradise with superlative accommodation and leisure features. The town is comprised of two vibrant hubs of activity, the picturesque Abu Tig Marina and traditional Downtown Kafr, both offering an array of activities, shopping, and dining. The town's award-winning architecture and the exceptional beauty of its natural environment speak for themselves. With over 2,200 homes sold and with over 10,000 permanent residents from all over the world, El Gouna is home to an exceptional international community. With a church and mosque, and even a football club, the population is a vibrant, living community.

A Destination for the Entire Family

Kids are highly cherished and valued members of the El Gouna community and the hotels and local service providers have taken care to create special activities aimed to give the youngest visitors an unforgettable vacation. Activities include an international nursery program, summer camp and daily kids' clubs, tailored diving courses, a local aquarium and museum, go-karting and mini-golf. In short, El Gouna is the perfect setting for lasting family memories.

Sports on Land and in the Water

Whether you enjoy a day at the beach, underwater, or on a quad runner expedition through the desert, El Gouna is the place for you. Exceeding the standards of legendary Egyptian hospitality, El Gouna's range of activities is abundant. The resort offers some of the worlds' best marine-based activities including snorkeling, deep sea fishing, paragliding, waterski, wakeboard and kitesurfing. Other activities include tennis, beach volleyball, horseback riding, desert safaris, and access to a range of hotel gymnasiums and fitness centers.

Golfing in Perennial Sunshine

Year-round sunshine means year-round golf, making El Gouna an ideal golfing destination. The 18-hole championship course boasts year-round golfing in a setting where players can feast their eyes on stunning views of mountain, water and sky as the course challenges the strength, ingenuity, and skill of novice and professional alike. The full service Golf Club offers rental services, food and beverage, and fitness facilities. For non-golfers, don't miss the weekly Golf Introduction with PGA Professionals on the driving range.

Diving: Stunning Marine Life

With nine certified diving centers, El Gouna is a real divers' destination. Heated pools and calm reefs make this the perfect place for the beginning diver to hone his or her skills before moving on to the Red Sea's highly-acclaimed reefs and wrecks. Experienced divers drawn to the region to explore those same sites will find that El Gouna's diving centers have plenty to offer them as well. The resort's various dive centers offer a complete range of diving education, including PADI and CMAS diving certification.

Explore: Beyond the Resort

Those able to tear themselves away from the pleasures of El Gouna and its immediate sea and desert surroundings can arrange excursions to Egypt's most popular historical sites. The ancient temples of Luxor and Aswan and the pyramids of Giza are only a bus or plane trip away, and Bedouin guides are always available for tours through the rugged Eastern Desert region.
